IMPROVEMENT OF KENTUCKY RIVER .-- A convention will assemble at Lexington during this month to devise means for the improvement of the navigation of the Kentucky river, and organize a company under the charter granted by the last legislature. Many years ago this important stream was improved by a system of locks and dams, from the mouth to several miles above Frankfort. That State policy has been productive of great good. To Louisville it was, at the outset, of the greatest importance. A further improvement of the Kentucky will develop the immense wealth Missouri 6's... of a tier of counties whose resources are now lying dormant for want of a method whereby a market can be reached. Let the river be so improved that boats can ascend and descend, and there will be an entire change in the face of that portion of THEATER-THREE FAST MEN.-This play, the title of which is suspicious, was announced as the card at the Louisville Theater last evening, and of ourse it was played, as it is again this evening. The thing isn't worth an extended notice. It has comical points, which some of the actors present in a ludicrous light, but the piece is really so flimsy, it is undeserving criticism. It is fast enough for those who lack principle, it has merit enough for those who laugh and not learn; quite equal to "Mose and Lize," and productions of like orality. Mr. Wm. H. Allen was introduced as a star" player in the piece. His part is poor enough-but certainly adapted to his ability.

PATENT GRATES AND STOVES .- One of the most apportant domestic improvements of the age, is he patent grate of Mr. Dodge, which is now offered to the Louisville public. We all knew the Indiana o's. value and comfort of a good fire. There is a deicious snugness about a seat before the glowing embers which poets have appropriately hymned. But generally, instead of ease and comfort, there s nothing but smoke, litter and waste. All the omance and pleasure is destroyed.

Mr. Dodge's patent grate saves fuel on a scienific plan-increases the heat, and adds to the general comfort of a seat by the hearth stone .-Orders for his invaluable article may be left at the

DRAMATIC READING .- Mrs. McMahon, whose apearances on the stage have created greater senations than those of any other female dramatist or years, is now in the city. It is well known hat Mrs. McM. is a lady of fortune, and was at Mir one time a leader of the Fifth Avenue ton. She | Indiana 5's. as given up home and ease in order to attain a osition in the ranks of histrionic talent. Not being enaged at our theater, she will give a dramatic reading, when our citizens can judge of her at-

There was a full meeting, yesterday, of the State Board of Agriculture, Hon. Brutus J. Clay presiding. The accounts and business of the late air were all adjusted. We learn with pleasure that the recent exhibition of the State Society was conducted with a thousand dollars less expense than any fair ever held on the grounds of he South western Association. This is, in itself, sufficient commendation of the capacity and exellent management of the State officers-President Clay, Secretary Gallagher, and Treasurer

We are indebted to the gentlemanly mangers of the Mokima Society, New Albany, for an nvitation to attend their fourth anniversary celebration on Tuesday evening next. The oration will be delivered by E. A. Maginnes, Jr., at Woodord Hall, at 7 o'clock, P. M. The members of the Society and their invited guests will afterwards partake of an entertainment at the Tabler House. DESTRUCTIVE FIRES .- The porkhouse of W. H. ulsifer, at Vincennes, Indiana, was destroyed by ire on Saturday night. The house contained a ndred slaughtered beeves, a large quantity of allow, hides, etc. The loss is estimated at $15,. 00, on which there was an insurance of $8,000. On Monday night the planing mill and sesh and loor factory of Bailey & Baker, at the same place, was destroyed by fire.

A TIPPECANOE HERO DEAD .- The Vincennes Gatte announces the death of Mr. John Scott, at hat place, aged 75 years. Mr. Scott emigrated to Vincennes from this county, about fifty years ago. He was a lieutenant at the battle of Tippecanoe and for many years postmaster at Vincennes, naving been originally appointed by Gen. Jackon, of whom he was an ardent admirer.

LECTURE UPON THE ARTESIAN WELL,-Prof. Hailman will lecture this evening at the High School Building, corner of Green and Walnut dreets, upon the Artesian Well. This is a subject of vast interest, and will be treated ably. The proceeds of Prof. H.'s lectures are devoted to the urchase of scientific apparatus for the use of the Female High School. CONVENTION OF LOCOMOTIVE ENGINEERS .- Our ty witnessed yesterday a convocation that is arely seen. It was a gathering of those sturdy, nergetic, and responsible men who drive the ngine upon our railways. Most of the States are resented, and the meeting promises to be one n which practical talent will be developed.

Hoo KILLING .- D. Ricketts & Co., at the Jefferonville porkhouse, vesterday slaughtered one housand hogs, the first of the season. Huffman, Duncan & Co., killed a small number at their porkhouse. The other packers have not yet commenced operations. A grey November sky throughout the whole of yesterday betokened snow, but there was not even a flake let. Snow four inches deep is reported at Poughkeepsie, New York, last Saturday. eople went to church, Sunday, in sleighs.

CHINESE SUGAR .- Over five thousand gallons of molasses have been made the present season from the Sorghum, or sugar cane, in Boone township, Harrison county, Ind., just below this city. THE HOG MARKET .- Our readers will find in the regular weekly review of the Louisville market

OLD INDIANA STATE BANK .- The Indianapolis entinel of vesterday says: The State Board of the old bank were in sess resterday, arranging for the winding up of the affairs of that institution. We learn that the circulation has been reduced to within $800,000, averaging about $20,000 to each branch. The arrangement for its redemption in this city by exchange at par on New York, instead of the counters of the several branches, only has the effect to send home the outstanding circulation rapidly. The long time the bank was in operation, twenty years, with a large and extended circulation, and the small amount now outstanding, comparatively, shows that after all, but a small per centage of bank bills are accidentally lost or destroyed.

He was noticed last evening writing several letters, after which he went down to the postoffice and returned, but did not appear excited in any way. Being his usual custom to sleep late in the day, the landlady of the house did not think it strange that he did not make his appearance during the forenoon, but in the afternoon, about 4 o'clock, she went to his room to see if he was not sick.

Upon opening the door, she discovered him ly-ing in the bed, apparently dying, and the follow-ing note on the table, open: "NEW ORLEANS, NOV. 2, 11 o'clock, P. M. "I die by my own hands, by taking 13 grains of morphine. The cause for this act is poverty and want of employment. Age, 20 years 7 months and 1 day.

"I B. MILLER."

Antioch, the "Old Waglin boy, was represented the faculty, was exhibiting to the jury a foil, or cane, belonging to one of the students, which was probably used in the melee. Tom was in his usual happy mood, and brought down the house frequently by his witty illustrations of the noble science of fencing; now parrying imaginary thrusts and anoa throwing himself flercely upon propose to give the reasons for this opinion in the which we hardly expect. We are, moreover, compelled to be absent from home for some weeks, out shall remain at home a few days after the publication of this-probably long enough to give the Journal writer time to say whether he will accept, or not, the fair and equitable proposition which we make to him at the close of the present paper-which we may possibly be compelled to divide into two. Our reply to the points made in the rejoinder of the Journal, shall be as brief and condensed as possible, but, we trust, to the purpose:

1. We will not dwell on those points which have been already sufficiently answered in the Courier, except to call public attention to the significant fact, that the Journal writer fully agrees with us in the great fundamental position that religion is essentially the basis of all sound education among Christians. He says that all evangelical Protestants freely admit this principle with us, the only difference between us being that we are somewhat more carnest and unanimous in maintaining it than they. He might have added that we are far more thorough and consistent in carrying it out. While Protestants are content with the homeopathic dose of a brief daily reading from the Protestant sectarian bible, without note, comment, or explanation, we are in favor of full religious instruction as an essential portion of all ossible, but, we trust, to the purpose: ment, or explanation, we are in favor of full religious instruction as an essential portion of all sound education. We, in fact, deem this so essential, that we are willing to double-tax ourselves in order to carry it into effect. But the Journal says that Protestants do the self-same thing, inasmuch as the amount of religious instruction which he thinks may be imparted in the public schools, is not enough to meet their views. There must surely be something grievously wrong in a system which thus avowedly does not meet an essential want even of the Protestant community, and which requires, as a necessary sequel to it, a double tax to be levied on Protestants and Oatholics alike! And we venture to add, that intelligent Protestants will not long continue to submit patiently to this patient grievance of a most oppressive normal tax. Some of the more ecalous among them may, indeed, bear with it for a time without openly murmuring, Some of the more scalous among them may, indeed, bear with it for a time without openly murmuring, knowing as they do, that the double tax presses much more heavily on Catholics than on themselves; but it is not in the nature of things, that among a people so devoted to freedom as ours, a system necessarily carrying with it double taxes ational purposes; but we repeat it, the system an not be permanent, and popular sentiment must sooner or later demand a change. If there he anything in which our people are more sharpshted than in others, it is this very subject of cessive taxation.

2. The Journal writer considers our objection the reading of the Protestant Bible in the thools a trivial one, and he asks us, with an air triumph, whether we would cordially co-opere with the public schools if the Protestant Bible rere removed. Our answer is obvious, and we rust it will be to the purpose. This, though one four objections, is not the only or even the trongest one. Remove all our conscientious obctions—which we have clearly and distinctly ated—and then, but not till then, you may fairly iculate on our cordial co-operation. When a an makes four or five points, and you are willing meet only one of them, it comports with neither mmon sense nor the most ordinary canons of gic-however it may be in accordance with the actics of the Journal-to ask, with an air of trimph, whether he be now satisfied! and whether e does now feel that he is utterly put down, de-colished! Verily, some men exult with very

We repeat it; remove all our objections, we will most willingly patronize the public schools, which belong to us as much as they do to you. Our in-derest would strongly incline us to do so, for we en we ask you in the name of reason and of rotestant minority; so does Catholic Bavaria; o does Catholic Belgium; so does Catholic Lower anada, though her immediate neighbor in the time province—Protestant Upper Canada—will same province—Protestant Upper Canada—will of grant it to the Catholic minority there.

If you will not do us the justice which all these allowed in the small Protestant minorities therein residency, then we entreat you, if it were only for consistency's sake, forever hereafter to hold your eace about the despotic intolerance of Catholic countries, and the superior enlightenment and libution which would offend the conscience of axT; and this both as a matter of protections of the objections. It is also seconding to my recollection of the conversation.

1. I objected to the regulation concerning the reading of the Bible at the opening of the schools, because, as there are different versions of the obleval of the beautiful and in entire books—no one version could be assected, which would not meet with conscientious objections from one or another class of the community. In supported by the mency of all, there should be no regulation which would offend the conscience of axT; and this both as a matter of proposition. ase of the same against the strictures of the leave of the same against the stretches of the constant of the flournal, which point, nevertheless, the editor has shever once dared even allude to, thereby virtually giving up the very gist and basis of the whole discussion. 3. The Journal writer does not deny that Catholic children would be greatly annoyed in the public schools, but he thinks that is merely an affair of boyish and girlish jesting, and he exhorts our children to bear up under the obloquy with equanimity. Now the annoyance, as we depicted it, without any exaggeration whatever, is really such as to be wholly unbearable. Parents cannot be reasonably expected to send their children to schools where their religion and place of birth will become subjects of continual taunt and cease-less annoyance. And the Journal, which has do ne more, perhaps, than any other print to foster this feeling of jealousy, based on difference of race and religion—a feeling as annoying and bitter as it is wholly unchristian—is the last paper in the land to preach of forbearance on this subject. It has done an amount of social mischief which years will not repair. While Catholic children in our public schools will continue to be looked upon and treated as "onteasts," as "little Dutch and Irish papists," we cannot reasonably expect them to frequent our public schools. Deeply as we regret this state of feeling, we have the consolation to know that we have one nothing to bring it about, and that we have, on the contrary, done everything in our power to obviate and correct it. Though Catholic children may be also somewhat blamaeable in the matter, we do not believe that they are so to the same extent. They are not trained up to protest against or to taunt others for the provided these be so conducted as not to endanger their faith, or to make them feel uncombratable and our children to the common schools, and they are not usually the aggressors. What they generally ask is simply to be let alone, and if unmolested they seldom interfiers to the provided these be so conducted as not to endanger their faith, or to make them feel uncombratable and our children to the common and a cannot a chooled to the provid let alone, and if unmolested they seldom interfere with others. This we believe every impartial observer of passing events will candidly admit.

4. The Journal writer does not deny that the management of the schools has been, and is now, controlled by bitter political partyism, nor that Catholic teachers have been removed merely because they were Catholics; though he professes "to have no particular knowledge in any way," of special cases! He must be very ignorant, then, of a fact which almost every one else in the city knew at the time, as the affair created quite a sensation, and was, we believe, commented ed on in the public prints. But "he feels under no special necessity, either of vindicating what the people in their sovereignty had done at the polls in the one case, (in the rejection of an old and most meritorious trustee,) or what the school trustees in their official color what the school trustees in the color when the teachers at enormous of Christians the world over, and about one-third of Christians the world over, and about one-third

The Journal and Bishop Spalding on our Public Schools.

The Louisville Journal has attempted a rejoinder to our defense of our pamphlet on common schools against his attacks on the same. We believe that the rejoinder, running through several articles, is a very feeble production, and wholly inconclusive as to the main points at issue. We propose to give the reasons for this opinion in the propose to give the reasons for this opinion in the present paper, which will probably be the last we shall feel called on to write, unless the Journal should produce something new on the subject.

With this simple statement of facts, we leave the public to judge how far we have been to blame in this whole matter. We do not see how we could have acted otherwise than we did. We dearly love peace, and we distinctively shrink from all agitation and controversy. Had we been disposed to get up an agitation, we might have done so more than four years ago, when a fair opp ollowing:

arisen among some of the trustees as to our real position on the subject, the chairman aforesaid, addressed us a polite note, offering to lay our opinion before the board, if presented by us in writing. We immediately responded to the courteous call, and wrote him a letter on the subject, which he laid before the trustees. Whether any action was taken on our letter by the board or not heavened its admission to record on their way. not, beyond its admission to record on their register, we were never informed; at any rate, no steps were taken to obviate our objection or to meet us even half way. Had we been disposed to agitate, we might have done so then, but we have refrained for more than four years. With the consent of the respectable chairman referred to, we now re-publish the correspondence, both with a view to correct the inaccurate statement of the Journal on the subject, and to show that our views have not materially changed since then; however forbearing we have been under the pressure of what we then believed—and now believe more strongly than ever—to he are intellegable with or what we then believed—and now believe more strongly than ever—to be an intolerable grievance, to which no genuine lover of freedom can long consistently submit without a protest. We merely add, that our own letter is copied from the first rough draft, which we retained, and that in the neater copy which we sent, and which we understand is on file at the board room, a few vermely changes, may have hear mode but these.

BISHOP SPALDING—My Dear Sir: I have been informed that some person told you that I represented to the Board of School Trustees that you had pronounced our public schools "rotten through and through."
The person who reported this, entirely misapprehaded the purson of my words. What I stated was, in substance, this: That I believed you never could regard our public schools with favor, whatever specific rules or arrangements might be made, because you considered the whole system rotten, the which I means the middle of the whole system rotten, the which I means the sidered the whole system rotten, the which I means the Reading Matter on every page.

The State Election in August, 1859. We publish, this morning, an excellent letter from Lexington, in behalf of the Hon. A. G. Talbott for Governor. Our correspondent, "Favette, writes well, and this effort will not fail to exert a telling influence upon the interests of Mr. Talbott. We commend the communication to the perusal of the numerous readers of the Courier in all parts of the State. It is by the reading of such letters that public opinion is to be cared for, and the trne interests of our party guaranteed.

The proceedings of eighteen county meetings in the State have now been published in the Courier. These were Trimble, Henry, Mercer, Marshall, Lincoln, Hickman, Boyle, Caldwell, Clarke, Fulton, Anderson, Woodford, Campbell, Greenup Morgan, Pendleton, Spencer, and Bourbon. We have given the names in the order of time the meetings were held, Trimble being the first and Bourbon the last.

Most of these counties have expressed preferences for different candidates, and instructed their delegates to vote for them in the convention. Only two of the counties named, Henry and Pendle ton, have failed to express a preference and left their delegates untrammeled.

Of the other sixteen counties four have instruct ed for McGoffin for Governor, two for Talbott, two for Preston, before he was appointed Minister to Spain, one for Boyd, one for Silvertooth, and one for Hise. For Lieutenant Governor two of them have declared for Simms, one for McGoffin, one for Silvertooth, one for Porter, and one for Jake Rice. For Auditor two have preferred Hazlerigg. For Treasurer two have designated Garrard .-For Attorney General two have indicated James and one Wooley. For President of the Board of Public Instruction one has spoken for Harney .-And for Register of the Land Office two have in structed for Bryan, one for Bowmer, one for Rodman, and one for Sublett.

We have thus posted up the books to this date with regard to the county meetings that have been held. If all the counties in the State send regularly appointed delegates to the convention, S meetings will yet be held. No one can form an idea from the proceedings already held, of the character of those yet to be holden. The three prominent candidates now in the field for Gov ernor, are MaGoffin, Talbott, and Boyd, if these county meetings are any indication.

In addition to these county meetings, we have published numerous letters, from all parts of the ferent offices and we now have on file any quantity of documents of this kind, which we shall lay before our readers as we can find space. Some of them are too long for publication, and we hope that our friends will hereafter confine themselves within a reasonable space when they want to speak well of their favorites. There are two chances to one in favor of a short letter being published and read, while there are two to one against a long one being either printed or read.

It may be well, also, for us again to suggest to the counties yet to hold meetings, that the State convention of 1856 fixed the number of delegates each county was to have in future conventions. and that the Democratic central committee have adopted their rule for the coming 8th of January. Each county, by this rule, is to be represented in the convention by one delegate for every one hundred votes cast for Revill last August, and one more delegate for each fraction larger than fifty votes. Some of the eighteen counties which have held meetings already, have appointed many more delegates than will be allowed, by this rule, to sit in the convention. We have heretofore published a table showing the number to which each county is entitled, and we refer our readers to it. It is

Bishop Spalding's Communication. We publish this morning another able com munication from the masterly pen of Bishop Spalding. It will be followed by another, or rather by the remaining half of the same article, to-morrow morning.

When the controversy began between the Louisville Journal and the Bishop, we were astonished at the defense the Journal made of our schools .-The editor did not touch the Bishop's main arguments, nor attempt to refute the facts upon which those arguments were based. We called attention to the manner in which the Journal skirmished around and about the Bishop's flanks without attacking his main column. It was vain, however, to attempt to bring the editor to the real issue .-He had his own way of arguing the case, and he pursued it to the satisfaction, no doubt, of a few bigoted, proscriptive, and narrow-minded readers, full of sectionalism and prejudice, while the Bishop's logic towered in full view, but untouched by his assaults.

The antagonsts, however, now bid fair to come together upon the main issue. We shall, therefore, leave them for the present, though we do so with a feeling of pity for a system of education that has such a defender, when attacked by such learning and ability as the Bishop has displayed. The contest is awfully unequal, and if the Bishop don't get the Journal down, it will be because he don't write as he has written heretofore.

When the Bishop shall have completely used up the Journal, we may offer some thoughts of our own upon the the subject of our common school system. It has faults which we think can be corrected so as to make the system both in theory and practice conform to the wishes of a much larger portion of our people than it now meets.

SALB OF THE BIG SANDY RAILROAD .- By virtue of a decree of the Clarke Circuit Court, in the suit of Joseph Bondurant vs. the Lexington and Big Sandy Railroad Company, the road, and materials belonging thereto, was publicly sold in the town of Ashland on Friday last, and bought by Joseph Glover, of this county, for 26,000 and odd dollars. The Mount Sterling Whig says that few well informed persons have any confidence that the sale will stand, or was anything else than nominal.

TIE. WHIPPLE'S SINGING CLASS.—We invite attention to the advertisement of this class, which seems to have become a permanent institution .-Price of tuition is so low as to be within the reach of the means of all, and those wishing to secure a musical education for their children, will do well to take advantage of this excellent opportunity.

[Correspondence of the Louisville Courier.] DAILY COUR IER The Gubernatorial Nomination—Hon. A. G. Tal-

LEXINGTON, KY., Nov. 8, 1858. Editors Louisville Courier: There have been so many announcements through the public press of candidates for Governor, and there have been so many public commendations of their merits and qualifications, that I fear the public have grown so tired of communications in behalf of candidates that their eye passes by without resting upon them. But to this one I ask particular attention, claiming that it will contain some sugestions valuable to all Democrats who wish to ee concord and harmony in our ranks. Col. Talbot is well and favorably known to the emocracy of the whole State. In 1855, when there was a dark lantern in every valley, upon every hill top, and at every cross-roads in Ken-tucky, and when it was known the Know Nothings had a majority of the votes of the fourth congressional district in their lodges, Col. Talbot ongressional district in their longes, Col. Taiboi d a forlorn hope to a glorious victory. Again, two years afterwards, he overcame all opposition, and his triumph was more lasting and brilliant than before. His congressional record is without a blemish. Upon all the issues of the last session of Congress he occupied a front position in the administration ranks—in fact, he is the only candidate for the nomination of his party who is fall. didate for the nomination of his party who is fully and completely identified with all the questions of the day, so that his election would let the Democracy of the nation know where the Democracy of Kentucky stood—who they were for and what they were for hey were for. But while his merits are as great, and his claim upon his party as deserving, as any one, there is still another consideration which is entitled to great weight, and will come home with great force upon all Democrats who wish to see factions and petty rivalry kept down in Kentucky—Col. and petty rivalry kept down in Kentucky—Col. Talbott is eminently a Compromise man! For several years there has been a growing jealousy between two portions of the Democratic party in our State. Already it has been said that the nomination of Hon. B. Magoflin—of whom it can be truly said there is no truer gentleman or better Democrat—will be a triumph of a certain portion of the Democracy. With this feeling and understanding, Col. Boyd, who has served his party eminently and faithfully, has lately been brought forth as a candidate, being considered as the champion of another portion of the Democracy. At the same time, it is hinted in many quarters that a distinguished excabinet officer is throwing all his influence in favor of Boyd's nomination, taking that method of getting him off of the list as a competitor for the succession of Mr. Crittenden. With this feeling existing in the party, it is apparent that there ing existing in the party, it is apparent that there cannot be a harmonious nomination of either of the above named gentlemen. While the leaders and managers of a party create such dissensiin it, there is happily a majority of others who are always in favor of good feeling and hearty are always in tavor or good reening and heart, unison, and in such a case, a compromise man must be looked for upon whom all can unite cordially. Col. Talbott is that man; he is identified with no particular man, or set of men; all who know him have confidence in his integrity, and dmiration for his unequalled energy.

More than all, his nomination would be a signal ebuke to the whining Know Nothings of Dar ville, who have always pursued him with an un relenting severity. It would throw down the glove to that political hybrid, Josh. Bell, whom the K. N.'s talk of nominating because he never belonged to the order, although he always owned a vast number of those who did. FAYETTE.

Democratic Meeting in Bourbon

At a meeting of the Bourbon Democracy, held in the court house, on Monday afternoon, the 1st inst., H. R. Miller was called to the chair, and John G. Craddock appointed secretary. Resolved, That in view of the new sectional party, which is about to be formed, composed of the Know Nothings and Black Republicans, without any bond of union than that of hatred to the Democratic party, and a lust for the spoils of office, a decided majority of which party is animated with the purpose of destroying all property in African slaves, and of assailing the just rights of the slave States, the Democratic party is called upon for renewing unity, harmony, and activity in resisting an unholy combination which threatens the peace and union of the States.

WEDNESDAY, Nov. 10 CHARGE OF STEALING JEWELRY-A PAIR OF Theves—More Kidnappino.—Charles Bliss and his wife Mary Bliss, were together presented on the charge of stealing a small lot of jewelry from the wife of J. H. Nelson. The police got information that the latter party had been robbed, and getting on the trail of the woman, who had been hired at the house as a servant girl, succeeded, after a good many twists and turns through the city, dodging in and out of alleys, over high fences and by-ways, in tracing the party to the steamer Woodford, at New Albany. The woman, rather a small smart-looking Irish woman, was found in the nursery, and the man in the cabin. They were taken into custody, together with their baggage, and placed in a skiff, and hurried over the river, regularly kidnapped, and the peo-ple of New Albany have made no fass about it. On examining the trunks, the jewelry, consisting of a small gold watch, a chain and locket, and two breast-pins were found in their possession. Mr. Nelson was introduced, who dentified the jewelry, or most of it, as the property of his wife, all worth about $100. He had hired the girl last Wednesday as a house servent but she had east Vednesday as a house servant, but she had sud Ventessay as a house servant, but she had suddenly disappeared, together with the jewelry.—Various members of the police, during the past two weeks, had seen this party together on the streets, and had also seen them in the house of Fanny Bradley. The suspicion of the police was excited by their maneuvers, and they tried to watch them but they were availed to the supplier of the policy of th

They claim to be man and wife; had been living ogether before the woman hired herself to Mrs Nelson, and went away together, having engaged o work their passage to Memphis on the Wood ford. The man, rather a young Irishman, was of the Woodford as a sort of assistant steward of waiter, while the woman had engaged in the la dies cabin to assist the chambermaid, and we think the passengers of the Woodford have made a narrow escape, as no doubt this thieving pair got on the boat for no other purpose than to steal.

After the testimony was closed, the woman addressed the court, at the instigation of the man, stating that he knew nothing of the robbery; that she alone was guilty; that she put the watch in his valise, and that he knew nothing of it. He put her up to this dodge, and she woman like ies' cabin to assist the chambermaid, and put her up to this dodge, and she, woman like, was willing to take all the blame. The court, however, was not to be misled in the affair, and held the fellow to bail in $800 to answer a felony. The woman was held to bail in the sum of $500, and in default of bail both were committed. This fellow Rliss, say she is an upholster, and had fellow, Bliss, say she is an upholster, and had been at work at Wehmhoff's, on Main street. It was in proof, however, that he had placed his wife in a house of prostitution, then hired her out as a servant, and finally induced her to steal, while he was reaping the benefits.

The above was the only case before the court.

KANSAS CITY LOTS.

KANSAS CITY LOTS.

The purchasers of Town Lots in Kansas City Territory are notified that the proprietors of the town are now prepared to make title to purchasers. All those holding bonds of the Union Association for title, are requested to present them immediately at the office of the Company, on south side of Jefferson street, two doors below Fifth street. I am authorized by the Company to collect the notes of purchasers, and make deeds in fee simple wherever the party wishes to complete his purchase by paying the money; but if any should prefer it, I am authorized to give them up their notes upon their surrendering the bond for title. Those wishing to purchase lots can have them at ten dollars per lot, at present. It is hoped that shose holding our bonds will present them forthwith, as arrangements are being made for extensive improvements early next spring. Office hours from 12 o'clock M. to 1 o'clock P. M., each day. In my absence the business will be attended to by A. Casseday, Eaq.

Same Polls. L. E. Ballard, one of the judges at the late muicipal election in Baltimore, has made a published statement of the facts that came under his observation at that time. He states that when the polls opened they were surrounded by a crowd of men and boys, who openly asserted that no one should vote who was not for Swann, the Fusion andidate for Mayor. Men whom they suspected of a different intention were driven off. The remainder of his statement must be given in his

The time for opening the polls arrived, and the voting commenced; and I am compelled to say I never before witnessed such scenes at an election—men and boys voting as often as they pleased, both seen and unseen, by the judges who took their believes. heir ballots.

"I strenuously protested against such proceedings, but to no avail. This sort of voting went on for about half an hour, when there was added to it another mode, viz: That of voting from hacks and omnibuses—a means by which more gross outrages are perpetrated on the elective franchise than probably any other that could be adopted, for in nearly every case two to three times as many ballots were taken as there were persons in the hacks, and there can be no doubt persons in the hacks, and there can be no doubt of the illegality of almost the entire number of those that were in them, to say nothing of the repetition of voting, This mode of voting was carried on to an extent incredulous to the State. While those who wished to vote a ticket other than those marked on the back except in a few inhan those marked on the back, except in a few in stances, were not allowed to vote at all. I saw in more than a dozen instances a person come to the lence in the front window, hold a ticket in each hand, both of which were taken and put in the box, the person giving some names, no doubt assumed, as they voted. Men from other wards, known to the judges, came up and had no diffi-culty in voting. I determined to leave the win-dow and have nothing more to do with the elec-

on as judge.
"I took a seat in the back part of the room, and ritnessed a continued repetition of voting by the ame persons, until their faces, which I had never een before that day, became as familiar as them. From notes taken then, I am sure I would not exceed the bounds of truth were I to say that the same person voted in the eighteenth ward on that day, eighty to one hundred times, and cer inly as often as he wished. I know the peop retty well in my ward, having lived there for he last eight years, and I am confident not more an one thousand legal votes were polled then, though the returns show nearly thirty-two hundred; and I am sustained in this by facts collected since the election, viz: In some six blocks, which I canvassed, containing about one hundred and twenty voters, one hundred did not vote, and I have no reason to think this other than a fair average in the ward.
"I left the room about three o'clock, and did not eturn—consequently gave what I know to be acree and a gross fraud no sanction by my signa ture. I now leave the matter to my friends and the public to say whether or not I stand as one of the perjured judges, and whether under the circumstances, I did right in leaving, &c.

Judge of Election for Eighteenth Ward.

Baltimore, October 23, 1858.

Baltimore, October 23, 1858, If such outrages had occurred in Kansas, the ision press would have made a deafening out ery; but, as they can attain no political capital out of the Baltimore villanies, which were connitted by their own partisans, they are silent. Mr Morphy-Reply of Mr. Staunton, Declining a Chess Contest.

The London Hiustrated News received by steamer America, contains the reply of Mr. Staunton to the letter of Mr. Morphy, urging him to a fixed time for the chess contest between them.— It is as follows:

London, Saturday, Oct. 9, 1858.
Sir:—In reply to your letter I have to observe that you must be perfectly conscious that the difficulty in the way of my engaging in a cless match, is one over which I have no control. You vere distinctly apprised, in answer to the extra-ordinary proposal of your friends, that I should eave my home, family, and avocations, to pro-eed to New Orleans for the purpose of playing chess with you, "that a long and arduous contest even in London, would be an undertaking to formidable for me to embark in, without ample opportunity for the recovery of my old strength in play, together with such arrangement as would prevent the sacrifice of my professional engagements." Upon your unexpected arrival here, the same thing was repeated to you, and my accep-cance of your challenge was entirely conditional on my being able to gain time for practice.

The experience, however, of some weeks, dur-ing which I have labored unceasingly, to the seri-pus injury of my health, shows that not only is it impracticable for me to save time for that purpose but that by no means short of giving up a grea work on which I am engaged, subjecting the pub ishers to the loss of thousands, and myself to an action for breach of contract, could I obtain time even for the match itself. Such a sacrifice is, of course, out of all question. A match at chess or cricket may be a good thing in its way, but none out a madman would for either forfeit his engageout a manima would for either forfeit his engagements and imperil his professional reputation.—
Under these circumstances, I waited only the termination of your late struggle to explain that, fettered as I am at this moment, it is impossible for me to undertake any enterprise which would have the effect of withdrawing me from duties I am pledged to fulfill.

The result is not perhaps what either you are

The result is not, perhaps, what either you or l desired, as it will occasion disappointment to many; but it is udavoidable, and the less to be egretted, since a contest wherein one of the compatants must fight under disadvantages so mani est as those I should have to contend against, at ter many years' retirement from practical chess with my attention absorbed and brain overtaxed y more important pursuits, could never be acounted a fair trial of skill. I have the honor to e. Yours, etc., H. STAUNTON.
PAUL Моврну, Esq.

P.S.—I may add that, although denied the sat-sfaction of a set encounter with you at this pe-iod, I shall have much pleasure, ifyou will again ecome my guest, in playing you a few games

The proprietor, in calling the attention of the public to his preparation, does so with a feeling of the utmost confidence in its virtues and adaptations of the diseases for which it is recommended.

It is no new and untried article, but one that has stood the test of a ten years' trial before the American people, and its reputation and sale is unrivalled by any similar preparation extant. The testimony in its favor given by the most prominent and well-known Physicians and individuals in all parts of the country is immense, and a careful perusal of the Almanac, published annually by the proprietor, and to be had gratis of any of his Agenta, cannot but satisfy the most skeptical that this remedy is really deserving the great celebrity it has obtained.

THE RIVER was about at a stand yesterday. with four feet eight or nine inches water in the canal in the evening, which is a rise of less than an inch in the previous 24 hours. The entire rise at the head of the falls has not exceeded six inches, while at the New Albany wharf the rise has been 20 inches, if not equal to two feet. At the foot of the falls, or the mouth of the canal, the rise was about 15 inches. The weather, as here-tofore, is cloudy and gloomy in the extreme, with now nearly two weeks of dark weather, and barely an hour of sunshine during the whole On the Portland and New Albany bar yesterday,

On the Portland and New Albany bar yesterday, there were fully six and a half feet water, and the boats which arrived from below report fully four feet on Scuffletown bar.

By special dispatch from Evansville yesterday morning, we learn that the High Flyer and John Raine, hence for New Orleans, had passed that port all safe. The High Flyer left this port on Saturday, and the John Raine left here on Sunday, both full of passengers. The latter was drawing fully four feet of water, and reached Evansville two hours after the High Flyer.

The river has risen considerably since the The river has risen considerably since the above boats passed down, and we have no doubt that there are more than four feet water to Evansville, and fully five feet on the bars below that

The river was at a stand at Pittsburgh yester day at noon, with six feet water in the channel At Cincinnati it had risen three inches, but or At Cincinnair it had risen three inches, but on Grassy Flats, the Telegraph No. 2, the mailboat yesterday, found less than five feet water. She rabbed the bottom. The following in regard to the upper river is from the Cincinnati Commer-cial of yesterday:

cial of yesterday:

Our exclusive dispatches report it rising at Marietta and Parkersburg, with 5½ feet at the former point, and five feet on Biannerhasset. At Wheeling there were five feet inte inches. The pilots on the Boston report the Ohio one stand at Big Sandy, but rising at Portsmouth, with five and a half feet in the channel. The Quarrier, direct from Charleston, on the Kansawia, reports a swell of three feet in that important tributary, and found three and a half feet and falling as she came out on Sunday, having passed a fleet of sixty salt boats before she arrived at the mouth—destined for this market and Louisville.

The tow boat Jas. Guthrie, bound for Pitts. burgh for a tow, passed Marietta on Tuesday. THE ALINE—FOR NEW ORLEADS,—This new boat for Capt. Hinckley, mention of which was made yesterday, takes her departure for New Orleans this evening, from Portland. She was built ex-pressly for the Opelousas trade, for the transpor-tation of sugar and cotton. The length of the Aline is 120 feet, breadth 30 feet, depth of hold 6 feet, and measures 150 tons. She is provided with two boilers, 22 feet in length. The hull was built by Messrs. D. & J. Howard, Jeffersonvillle; the engines by Lent, South & Shipman, the cabin by H-pple, Smith & Co., copper work by H. N. Devol, painting by G. B. Spurrier, all of New Albany. The cabin cutfit complete, including carpets, curtains, oil cloths, etc., as well as the decking, and the decking for her two barges, were all furnished by Hite & Small, of

THE OSCEOLA-FOR UPPER RED RIVER .- The Os ceola, Capt. Barnes' new boat for the upper Red river trade, started to New Orleans last night the captain being in rather a harry to get out.— She has capacity for the burthen and storage of 1,000 bales of cotton, the hull having 27 feet beam, 514 feet hold, and 132 feet in length. It was built by T. S. Nadal. The cabin, a small one, was built by Downes & Co., and furnished and fitted up catirely by John A. Dickinson, the energetic apholster. The pantry and cabin ware, etc., was furnished by Walton & Barret, the popular china ware dealers on Fourth street. The engines and all her machinery were from the foundry of Hawley, Billings & Co. Her cylinders are 14 inches in diameter, with 5 feet stroke, and she has two large 44 inch boilers, with 4 flues, each 22 feet

THE PACIFIC POR NEW ORLEANS .- This swift clipper of the seas, the most magnificent, fleet, and popular of the Lightning Line, takes herdeparture to New Orleans Saturday evening, on her first trip of the season. Most of her rooms are already engaged for the trip.

For Owenseono and Henderson.—The Scioto No. 2, Capt. Ballard, has changed her days of departure to Monday and Thursday—twice a week, instead of tri-weekly, extending her trips to Evansville and Henderson. She starts at 4 o'clock this evening, from Portland. CTLINDER BURST.—We copy the following from the St. Louis News of Tuesday:

About ten miles above Burlington, on Sunday night, one of the engines of the Pembinaw burnt out both cylinder heads, and quite seriously injured the engineer, Mr. Wilan McCorny. Both of his legs were broken, and one of his ankles dislocated; but he is pronounced to be in a lumediate danger. The accident deprive the steamer of one of her engines, the cylinder receiving considerable injury.

LAID BY .- The old Aleck Scott has been at last towed to the bone yard at St. Louis.

The Pembinaw and C. W. Sombart have also been laid up at St. Louis.

New York, Nov. 10.—Mademoiselle Piccolomin and rather a crowded and enthusiastic house to ight at the Academy of Music, on the occasion of the repetition of Don Giovanni. The receipts are reputed at over $5,000. In the Ninth Congressional District the canvassers have only completed fifteen of the twenty-four towns in Winchester county. The returns show a slight gain for Haskin, who is probably Railroad Convention. CLEVELAND, Nov. 10.—The adjourned railroad convention met this evening. The attendance was much larger than at any previous meeting. $400,000,000 were represented. The meeting was organized by the election of George Bliss, of Michiganized Business of George Bus n Southern Railroad, as Chairman, and George nderson Secretary. No business was transact-to-night. Nearly all the Western and many Eastern roads were represented. Meeting of the Creditors of L. Stone & Co. Boston, Nov. 10.—The third meeting of the creditors of Lawrence Stone & Co., was held to day. Additional claims were presented, which together with the claim of George Peabody, of London, amount to $500,000, and will swell the sum owed by the firm, at the time of its failure, to nearly $4,000,000.

River and Weather.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 10 .- Weather cold and cloudy St. Louis, Nov. 10 .- The river is falling rapidly at this point, and all the upper streams are reced-ing. There was another brisk snow storm this morning, and it is now cloudy and damp. MEMPHIS, Nov. 10.—Weather very cold, with slight fall of snow.

The Frankfort (Ky.) Commonwealth is rejoicing at the recent triumphs of the Black Republicans in Ohio, Pennsylvania, New York, and other States. Why does it not show proper courage and hoist the Seward flag? Let it do directly, manfully, and aboveboard, what it is doing indirectly and sneakingly. If it is in favor of Abolitionism in Kentucky and the South, say so manfully and at once, and don't beat about the bush, as it is doing and has been doing.

as it is doing and has been doing.

If the slave States do not want slavery, or do not want their constitutional rights protected by the Democracy of the North—and no other party seems disposed to interpose for their protection— let them say so, and "non-interference" is our motto. We can keep quiet with both tongue and press; but, at the same time, we can assure our brethren of the South that if the Buchanan bar-rier is broke down, which now stays the fierce waves of Abolitionism, woe betide the South!
The Commonwealth, Louisville Journal, and other Southern papers may aid in producing the crisis, which will be fatal to Southern equality and States' rights, and which they have been for some time aining at—but they must not endeavor to make the Democracy of the North responsible for such result.—Cin. Enq.

COMMERCIAL.

OFFICE LOUISVILLE COURIER,
WEDNESDAY EVENING, Nov. 10. The market during the week has been rather inania every respect, excepting provisions, which, though not very active, are very firm at fall figures. The packing season is about to commence, and one of our pack-ing houses has already slaughtered a few hundred hogs. rices of hogs for slaughter are very firm, with sales of ensiderable lots at 6a6ck net, and contracts in the ountry for early delivery at 4 4 a4 % c on foot. At Cininnati, the slaughter to a moderate extent commenced esterday, the prevailing quotation for hogs being 6c. reen hams sold to a large extent at 8c, for present and ature delivery. The sales comprised about 18,000 pieces. reen shoulders brought 4%c. Lard sold at 10a10%c r barrel and keg. There are buyers for mess pork at $15 50 for December ane $16 for January. The prices or hogs, mess pork, and lard, on the 8th of November, er two years past, compare as follows: Hogs. * Mess Pork. $686 12½ $15 50 10e The following is from the Cincinnati Price Current of yesterday:

The short crop cry from the country is so general, and being accompanied by orders to buy, it has made our packers a little restive, and they find it rather difficult to keep calm; but they should bear in mind that the cryof 'welf—wolf,' when there was no wolf, in other years, has led them to make serious mistakes. To the calm and disinterested observer, the evidences are clearly in favor of a good supply of hogs—better than last year. But even if the supply should prove none greater than last year, how parties who buy hogs at $6a6 25 expect to make the business pay in a season like this, when all kinds of human food, except pork, is abundant and cheap throughout the world, is certainly beyond our comprehension.

The reported failure of the hog even it. Indian and The short crop cry from the country is so general and The reported failure of the hog crop in Indiana and ther sections has had the influence to enhance prices, as we hear of considerable falling off in the kog crop of the lower Wabash. An Evansville paper says that Gibson county will not have more than 10,000 hogs to sell this eason, in place of the 100,000 which is her ordinary the stock hogs. A like fatality has prevailed in the pposite regions of Illinois. At Lafayette, Indiana, contracts have been extensivey entered into at $5 00, and the slaughter already com-menced. Large quantities of fat hogs are passing dally ver the Indiana railroads on the way East. At Terre laute, Ind., but few hogs have been bought as yet, and the prospects are bad for a brisk business year. Buyers are offering $5 per hundred, but holders are not disposed sell at that rate. There will be fewer hogs packed here this season than last.

At St. Louis there has been an increased excitement in the hog market on contracts for future delivery. We hear of sales at $550a5 75 for delivery from the 1st to the Oth of December. Operators base their views on a short

At Keokuk, the prevailing rate is $4 50. At Cincinnati $5.75 is the price per hundred for hogs averaging 200 pounds. Packing had commenced to a limited extent. In Limestone county, Ala., (says the Athens News,) sevral engagements have been made at 4c-and a good many buyers are holding back, thinking that the market nay yet settle down at 3%c. In Wilson county, Tenn., many engagements have been made at 4c. In this coun. (Lawrence) we have heard of some engagements beg made at 4c.

A Muscatine paper say: Our pork buyers and packers are now ready to commence operations. They have already engaged upwards of 20,000 hogs. We have reaon to believe the number that will be packed at this place this season will not fall much short of 50,000 head. rices now offered range from $4 to 4 50 per 100 lbs. The weather for the entire week, if not two weeks, has een very disagreeable, with almost daily rains, and not ve minutes sun or a clear sky to be seen during the time.

The rains were very light, and not of much benefit to avigation, as the river has risen but very little, and oats can only go out with very small cargoes. The ates of freight, though unsettled, have a downward tendency, with but little disposition to ship. Our quotations are altogether the wholesale prices for

MISCELLANEOUS. TO THE AFFLICTED LADIES! MRS. JULIA M. MILLIGAN'S

Patent Improved Abdominal Supporter.

THE object of this invention is to provide for a prolapsed condition of the abdomen, a healthful and properly distributed support to all internal organs, capable of nice and ready adaptation to the changing condition of the patient, and can be made to form an article of wearing apparel capable of being washed as any other customary garment. Afflicted ladies will find this Supporter far superior to all others made of steel, horn, leather, or India-rubber, which are so unpleasant to the person. My Supporters are manufactured of any woven fabric, such as Muslin, India Twill, then or Silk, &c. This Supporter has been in use for the first ladies of New Albany, Louisville and Cincinnati, and a number of ladies throughout the country. References of ladies that have used them can be seen by calling at the residence of Mrs. MILLIGAN.

Physicians are respectfully invited to call and examine my Supporters.

DRAVO & SON, Third street, between Main and Market sts.

The undersigned, formerly of the "Hotel de Raine," begs leave to inform his friends and the public generally, that he has lately opened the above house, situated at the southeast corner of Fifth and Jefferson streets, and is now ready to refresh and invigorate the weary traveler with good, cool, and wholesome beverages, of the best kind.

The Brandy, Old Bourbon, Holland Gin, Port, Madelrs, Sherry, Champagne, Catawba and Claret Wines, also the Cigars and Tobacco with which my bar is adorned, have been purchased, regardless of high prices, from old correspondents, and are therefore justly deserving the high enconiums which "connoisseurs" have been pleased to bestow upon my plain and combination-drinks, each SARATOGA. to bestow upon my plain and combination-drinks, eac and all of them prepared and handed out in "our ow imimitable style." In addition to the attractions of the bar, I have also furnished in the second-story of the style. difice a large and airy bar, I have also furnished in the second-story of the edifice a large and alry

containing three tables, conceded by judges to be master-pieces of workmanship, and without rivals in the city or country. Amateurs of this noble game will find the marble beds, Michael Phelair's combination cushions, cues, and all other necessary rigging, in the most complete order, and worthy of the patronage of all friends of rational and healthy amusements.

I have also the pleasure of announcing that I have succeeded in securing the valuable assistance of Wm. H. Wise, Esq., who will be pleased to wait on his numerous friends and new customers. This acquisition, together with the gentleman who attends the Billiard Saloon, and my own untiring attention to the wants of customers, presents to the public about "as strong an accommodation team" as there is running in the city. Inviting all to test the truth of the above assertions, I respectfully remain, JOHN G. HUNT, southeast corner Jefferson and Fifth streets, aul8 d3m Louisville, Ky.
